49 [number of column in the composite roll] To Harpokration alias Hierax, royal scribe of the Arsinoite nome, Herakleides division, from Herodes, son of Heron, the son of Herakleides, mother Eirene, from the metropolis, registered in the Treasuries' quarter. There belongs to me the tenth part of a house in the quarter of the Bithynians and other areas, in which I live and register myself and my family for the house-by-house registration of the past 28th year of Aurelius Commodus Antoninus Caesar, the lord, in the same Treasuries' quarter, in which I registered in the house-by-house registration of year 14. And I am Herodes the above mentioned, a weaver, subject to poll-tax, 50+ years old, and (I register) my wife, Eirene, who is also my sister, 54 years old and the children of both of us, Heron, goldsmith (?), 29 years old, and Neilos also a goldsmith, 26 years old, and Sarapion, registered in the (list of) those born since then, [x] years old, and Herakleides, 9 years old, and Euporas, 7 years old, both of whom have not yet been registered in the (list of) those born since then and [NN], 23 years old, and Neilliana, who is the wife of Heron, [x] years old, and Thaisarion, 17 years old, and the children of Heron and Neilliana, Herodes and Tryphon, both of these twins have not yet been registered in the (list of) those born since then, 1 year old, and the wife of Neilos Thermoutharion, daughter of Kastor, son of Heron, mother Isidora, from the metropolis, 29 years old, and the children of both of them [- - -]n, 13 years old, and Heron, [x] years old, both not yet registered in the (list of) those born since then, and the children of my deceased brother Herakleides, Heron, mother Eirene, cloth-beater, 34 years old, and Apion of the same mother, worker, 24 years old, and Herakleides, goldsmith, 19 years old, and Thaisarion, who is the wife of Heron, 17 years old, and the daughter of both of them Syra, 1 year old. And the lodgers: Neilos, son of Demetrios, the son of [NN], mother Thaisarion, a donkey driver, subject to poll-tax, 44 years old, and his wife and sister Eirene, 52 years old, and the son of both of them, Kastor, not yet registered in the (list of) those born since then, 8 years old, and the brothers of the above mentioned Thermoutharion, who is of the same father and the same mother, Heron, a cloth-beater, subject to poll-tax, 34 years old, and Melanas, gardener, 32 years old, and Heron, son of Herakleides, the son of Heron, mother Didyme, a worker, subject to poll-tax, 26 years old and his sister of the same father and the same mother [- - -]e, 23 years old. Most of these were registered together with me in the register of the 14th year of Marcus Aurelius Antoninus in the above mentioned Treasuries' quarter. Therefore I submit (this registration). I [Hero]des have submitted. Harpokrat[- - -]. [Year 29] of Aurelius Commodus Anto[ninus] Caesar, the lord -- -]

To Philoxenos, strategos of the Arsinoitic divisions of Themistes and Polemon and acting strategos for the division of Herakleides, from Panesneus, collector of taxes in cash of the village of Soknopaiou Nesos, viritim report of the exaction of what has been paid to my office on the account of the month Mesore of the current 3rd year. Here follows the list:
Stotoetis and Pakysis, priests of the [x] tribe, and the other priests, for the altar tax, [x] drachmas; and ear-marked for the benefit of the epistrategia, other 280 drachmas; and through the elders of the village, for the livestock tax, other 200 drachmas.
Panesneus the collector, through Harpalos the secretary, delivered (this document). Year 3 of Lucius Septimius Severus Pius Pertinax Augustus Arabicus Adiabanicus, Thoth 20.
